I will be attending first year university in the fall, am I eligible?

As long as you will be attending college or university in the US or Canada by fall you are eligible. You are also eligible if you are already attending.